DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election of species 3, Fig. 12, claims 1-3 and 16-18 in the reply filed on 6 February 2007 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-3 and 16-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Isobe et al (USPN 7,063,598). Isobe et al clearly discloses a polishing apparatus comprising a substrate holding device to hold a substrate Wf on a substrate holding surface 10, a substrate relay device 50 to deliver and receive the substrate Wf to the substrate holding device 10 comprising a substrate placement section 22, a moving mechanism 39 to vertically move the substrate placement section 22, a fluid port 58 to eject fluid toward substrate Wf, wherein the substrate holding device 10 has a passage 15 to supply pressurized fluid from the substrate holding surface to the substrate Wf, an elastic pad 12a including opening 12b connected to a fluid supply source, a support member 12 to support the elastic pad 12a, a substrate holding device body 11 having a space to accommodate the elastic pad 12a and the support member 12, pressure chambers (note Fig. 2 and 22, col. 7, line 51 to col. 8, line 65, col. 17, line 66 to col. 18, line 6).

4. The applied reference has a common inventor with the instant application.

Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Tolles et al is cited to show a polishing apparatus.
